Senior Software Engineer - Full-stack Developer

[30/06/2018 - 22/02/2022]

Delivered end-to-end solutions across industries including digital media, public health, and large-scale e-commerce. Notable work includes serving as tech coordinator for a major German news platform with over 3 million monthly views, where I led client communication, task delegation, and full-stack development across a microservices architecture. Additional projects span a cantonal health promotion platform in Switzerland and one of the country's largest online ticket reservation systems, contributing across React.js, Java Spring, Node.js, and PostgreSQL environments.

Technologies used: JavaScript, TypeScript, React.js, Java, PostgreSQL
